Dear Mike,

I hope I haven't inconvenienced you by keeping your dissertation and [redacted] for so long. We have kept you under consideration for our post as we have interviewed other candidates since we saw you in February. The selection process has taken a good deal longer than we expected, but I can report that we have now made our choices. I am sorry that I cannot offer you an appointment, but I am glad to have been brought up-to-date on your present work, and grateful for your interest and patience.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian
